Step back in time to the roaring 1920's and prepare for an unforgettable experience at The Speakeasy Murder & Other Acts of Prohibition in Orlando, FL. The action begins as soon as the doors open. Soak in the lively atmosphere of a New York nightclub, complete with music, signature cocktails and delicious food. The room buzzes with bootleggers, gangsters, and flappers dancing The Charleston. This isn't just any night at the club, when the music stops, someone is going to be murdered, and you'll be right in the middle of it all,

Colorful characters will be weaving through the audience because this is more than a show, it's an interactive experience. Each guest can play detective (or accomplice). Bribes, secrets, and surprises are the currency of the evening, and every twist depends on your votes. Will the killer be unmasked, or will they get away with murder? In this world of jazz, prohibition, and back-alley deals, nothing is what it seems. For the next 2 hours, eat, drink, laugh, and solve the crime—but remember, at this notorious speakeasy, someone always ends up swimming' with the fishes and someone else is headed to the big house!

We hope you attend in costume and join the fun. Make sure you leave your weapons at the door or you might be mistaken for the murderer.
